AMEP MINGLING WITH AFN CONSTITUENTS

ANCHORAGE, AK OCTOBER 17, 2008: The Alaska Manufacturing Extension Partnership, Inc. (AMEP) will have an exhibit and booth at the Alaska Federation of Natives (AFN) Conference. AMEP staff will be on hand to talk to people and answer questions about the programs and services that AMEP and its program affiliate, the Alaska Manufacturing Business Industry & Technology (AMBIT) Program have to offer.

Small businesses, microenterprises, artisans, performing artists, and more are encouraged to stop by the booth to learn about our eCommerce platform, The Alaska Business Portal. For a limited time, an eCommerce website through AMBIT is FREE for 6 months, $19.95 per month after the first 6 months with no long term contract. If you would like to set up your own eCommerce site at this year's AFN Conference, contact Estelle Thomson-Hale, Project Development Coordinator at (907) 777-7304 or email estelle@ak-mep.org.

The General Assembly of AFN will convene from October 23-October 25, 2008 at the new Dena'ina Civic and Convention Center in downtown Anchorage. The booth will be located on the 1st floor of the new Dena'ina Civic and Convention Center. A representative will be available to speak with AFN Constituents from 8 am to 7 pm on Thursday, October 23 and Friday, October 24, and from 8 am until 2 pm on October 25.

Contact AMEP at 907.279.2637, Fax 279.2638, email information@ak-mep.org or visit our website www.ak-mep.org or www.ambit.cc
